Estate welcomed but concern aired about town roads

FEAR VOICED OVER PLANS FOR HOMES

PLANS to build 1,880 houses, a secondary school and two primaries on a new estate on the north-east edge of Didcot could take up to 10 years to come to fruition.

The 350-acre site opposite the Ladygrove estate is partially owned by the University of Reading, which has formed the North East Didcot Partnership with developer Croudace Homes to submit an outline planning application.

Comprising land to the north-east of the A4130 northern perimeter road and bounded to the east by B4016 Ladygrove and to the north by the B4016 Abingdon Road, the site has been earmarked by South Oxfordshire District Council since 2009.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

However, while town councillor Des Healy, pictured, welcomes the plan for homes on the site, he believes the town cannot sustain the large number of applications for housing estates it is receiving with its existing roads system.

He said: "The basic fact is that people have no objection to these developments but the infrastructure for the town must be prioritised."

Mr Healy said the town needed new infrastructure put in place as soon as possible, such as Oxfordshire County Council's idea for a link road from the A4130 to the A415 between Abingdon and Berinsfield.

The partnership's plan for the estate would see up to 40 per cent of the homes built for the affordable sector, along with a sports pavilion, a neighbourhood centre, shops, a restaurant, a hotel, a community hall, residential care home and allotments.

The scheme is due to be considered by South Oxfordshire District Council by December 17. The proposals are in line with its Core Strategy 2012 and, if approved, building would start in late 2016 and see 150 to 200 homes built annually.

Croudace's managing director, Richard Holmans, said: "From the new schools and the new sports centre to substantial local transport improvements, this is a long-term plan to complete a high-quality neighbourhood in Didcot over the next ten years."

Nigel Frankland, the university's strategic estates director, said: "We've worked hard with local residents and stakeholders, to put together a comprehensive and integrated scheme which not only delivers the much-needed new homes but also supporting facilities and infrastructure."

The plan for the estate had previously stalled over a hiccup in a deal for SODC to buy land from the university for a new sports centre to serve the development and rest of the town, but the parties are likely to make a deal.

Bid to Whitehall for £4 billion deal

• Oxfordshire City Council leader Ian Hudspeth

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

OXFORDSHIRE'S public bodies have made a bid to government to consider a £4billion investment deal to have greater local control over its funding for health services, transport and skills training.

The six Oxfordshire councils, the Oxfordshire Local Enterprise Partnership and Oxfordshire Clinical Commissioning Group jointly submitted 'an expression of interest' to the Government on Friday.

The bid was backed by both Oxford universities and was submitted in response to calls from the government for local areas to increase economic growth with the government prepared to devolve power and funding to local areas.

Oxfordshire County Council leader, Ian Hudspeth, said: "By working together, there is an opportunity to take control of more than £3bn of money spent in Oxfordshire so that we can plan and manage growth in the best way.

"Oxfordshire already has a strong economy but if we are to continue to create good jobs and opportunities for future generations we cannot stand still.

"The county council is committed to working with local partners to shape that future, and I am encouraged that we have jointly agreed this expression of interest."

Ideas initially contained four themes, which were to develop the county's infrastructure via the roads network, to help residents have the skills for jobs in hi-tech industries, to tackle housing shortages and affordability.

As well as ensuring health and social care services meet growing demand as the population ages and in response to cuts to funding for public services.

Oxford City Council leader Bob Price said: "Oxford and Oxfordshire has a strong and vibrant local economy, but our future success will depend on the investment we need to tackle the chronic housing shortage in the city and our congested roads.

"This expression of interest shows our commitment to delivering a unified and consistent approach to tackling the issues.

"This is only the beginning. We have a lot of work to do to secure the funding and local powers we need to make it happen."

The plans follow the £56m City Deal and the £118m Oxfordshire Growth Deal agreed with the government last year.

The next step in the bid will involve further discussions between Oxfordshire partners and government departments to broker the deal.

Bullfinch prompts investigation into guest houses

AN Oxford City Council committee has approved an investigation into the registration of guest houses following Operation Bullfinch and evidence that guest house were used by the perpetrators to carry out their own crimes.

The council's scrutiny committee approved the investigation by the Guest Houses Review Group, a sub-panel of the committee, at a meeting at Oxford Town Hall on Monday.

Currently, hotels and guest houses are required to keep record of guests and if they have any suspicions to report them to the police.

However, there is no safeguarding link between guest houses and the council.

A cross-party panel of four councillors has been assembled and an investigation has been outlined to take place in the coming months.

The review will include contributions from Thames Valley Police, Experience Oxfordshire, Oxfordshire County Council and from guest houses in the city.

Oxford city councillor Van Coulter, chair of the guest houses review group, said: "We were all appalled by what happened and it is our duty to ensure that every avenue is explored to prevent crimes such as that happening again."

Operation Bullfinch saw seven men jailed for 95 years in 2013 for sexually exploiting six girls in Oxford often in guest houses.

'Fantastic' Bunkfest entertains thousands

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

THIS year's Bunkfest has been praised as 'absolutely fantastic' after around 18,000 people descended on Wallingford last weekend.

Guests travelled from all over the country to the town's biggest festival of the year, as it celebrated its 14th anniversary since it originated as a small party to mark one of the founders' birthdays.

Folk rock band Blackbeard's Tea Party, roots group Edward II and folk fusion collective The Roving Crews headlined each night over the weekend, with large crowds drawn to the main stage on the Kinecroft.

Live music blared out in venues across the town, with stages set up in the Boat House and the Cross Keys, both in High Street.

Co-founders and lead festival organiser, Colin Dolton, said: "It was a brilliant weekend. We got the great weather and such a friendly atmosphere to it that had a bit of family feel to it."

The Market Square saw a community street fair on Saturday and Sunday, with dancing including morris, Irish, rapper sword and belly dancing.

Colin added: "The town centre was packed on both days and the community street fair in the market place was a real hit."

More than 100 performances took place over the three days, with around 80 artists taking to the various stages.

Wallingford's mayor Lynda Atkins, who opened the festival on Friday with a speech, said: "It was an absolutely fantastic weekend.

"I wandered around the site a couple of times and everywhere you looked there were people having a good time.

"This festival is a really huge thing for the people of Wallingford and each year we embrace it, and this year was no exception - the town loved it."

The first Bunkfest was organised for then-manager of the Cross Keys, Bob Wyatt, in 2002, but has since expanded into a large family-orientated festival that has three directors, a 10-strong committee, a working group of 30 and around 100 volunteers.

Workshops, and boat and train trips were also running.

Students enter 'world of work' at new tech college

NEARLY 150 students began their school year at Oxfordshire's first specialised science-technology college in Didcot on Monday as the new £10m building opened its doors.

The UTC Oxfordshire students - 90 starting in Year 10 and 48 starting in Year 12 - were let in at 8am before being given an introductory talk by principal Owain Johns and starting lessons in the afternoon.

The school, in Wantage Road, is half complete with work ongoing on the school's south wing.

Only the completed north wing is currently available to students.

Mr Johns said: "Just by looking at the students here I can see that they look very smart and seem prepared for the world of work, which is exactly the kind of environment we are trying to create here.

"They are pioneers as they have chosen our school and they are the future of it."

Josh Green, 17, from Witney, said: "I want to do chemical engineering and this school has the right environment and subjects to allow me to do that.

"I know that it's only partially built but it still look pretty good from what I've seen."

Ben Warr, 16, from Hungerford, said: "I like the whole ethos of the school and the fact that it's a working environment.

"My dad told me that these days it's all about having employability skills and I feel that this school will give me those skills."

Cowley tyre fire being treated as arson by police

A FIRE that engulfed cars and tyres Oxford MOT and Service Centre in Cowley is being treated as arson.

About 40 properties had to be evacuated on Saturday morning as 45 firefighters battled the large fire in Marsh Road at around 3.34am.

The firefighters quickly brought the blaze under control but due to the flame's intensity, it spread to a nearby office building, so residents had to be evacuated from surrounding homes in Cowley Road and Marsh Road as a precaution.

James Williams, spokesperson for Thames Valley Police said: "Police are investigating a fire in Marsh Road Oxford, as arson."

At the fire's peak there were eight fire engines on the scene with residents taken in by the landlord of the Marsh Harrier pub in Marsh Road whilst the fire was being battled.

Residents were allowed back in their homes within two hours of being evacuated.

400-year-old funfair returns to Oxford

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

THIS year's St Giles' Fair transformed the road into a catwalk of rides and attractions on Monday and Tuesday.

Rollercoasters, games of skill, and fun fair foods adorned St Giles' as the road was closed off to make way.

The fair is held each year on the first Monday and Tuesday after St Giles' Day on September 1.

Bella Wilson, eight, and sister Tilly Wilson, nine, from Oxford both enjoyed another year at the festival.

Bella said: "The waltzer was my favourite. I started to feel a bit sick but I still like it."

Tilly added: "The waltzer was my favourite too."

Their mum Catherine, 47, said: "I've been every year I've lived in Oxford since I was little. It hasn't changed over the years."

The fair began in 1625, 390 years ago, as a parish celebration of the patron saint St Giles.

It became a toy fair in the 18th century before becoming a children's fair in the 19th century and finally a funfair in the late Victorian era.

Today the fair is run by the Showman's Guild of Great Britain in partnership with Oxford City Council.

Bicester couple Maureen and Ronald Wise, both 70, were enjoying the attractions on Monday evening.

Mrs Wise said: "I've been coming here since I was born. I won't be going on any of the rides though, I'm a bit too old for that. I think my favourite part is all the games."

Mr Wise added: "I've heard the Abingdon fair is bigger but this one is definitely better."

St Giles' was closed to traffic from Midday on Sunday and reopened on Wednesday morning.

Amongst those making the most of the fair was chief fire officer David Etheridge from Oxfordshire County Council Fire and Rescue Service headquarters in Kidlington.

He said: "It's been a fantastic night. Great weather, there's a fantastic atmosphere."

Masked burglar

OXFORD: A masked man entered a woman's house in a burglary on Thursday, September 3.

The 29-year-old victim was in bed at a property in Kennington just before 12pm when a man entered the bedroom wearing a balaclava or a face-mask.

The offender ran out of the room when he saw the victim.

He was wearing a cream baseball cap, a black zip up hoody and dark trousers.

Nothing was stolen in the incident.

Housing rules

CHERWELL: More north Oxfordshire residents will included on the housing register than ever before under changes introduced by Cherwell District Council.

The changes to the council's housing allocation scheme, effective from this week, mean that those who are not currently eligible will now have more opportunities.

A reserve list has been introduced for households who want to be considered for social housing.

A priority status will also be awarded for key workers and social tenants that need to move for work as well as those ready to move on from supported accommodation.

Uni crime rates

OXFORD: Oxford universities have just missed out on top ten positions for low crime rates across England and Wales.

Statistics published by the Complete University Guide, which take into account burglaries, robberies, violence and sexual offences, rated Oxford and Oxford Brookes eleventh and twelfth respectively.

Per 1,000 residents Oxford has 16.34 incidents of crime while Brookes has 17.05.

The victim was pushed and fell against metal railings before being kicked by the driver of the BMW.

Thousands turn out for Syrian refugees

JUST days after the tragic death of three-year-old refugee Aylan Kurdi, thousands turned out on the streets of Oxford bearing placards to show solidarity with those fleeing conflict around the world.

The Refugees Welcome in Oxford march took place on Sunday and surpassed the expectations of organisers when around 2,000 joined the peaceful demonstration.

The event was organised by Oxford-based author and journalist Mark Lynas after images of the young boy's body were splashed across national papers on Wednesday.

Mr Lynas said: "I've been to some political rallies but I've never seen anything like that.

"We estimate about 2,000 people turned up on the day. I set the page up on September 2 and we had about 1,000 people sign up in four days.

"A lot of us had just come to the end of our tethers. The government has been slow to respond."

Witney MP and Prime Minister David Cameron announced on Monday the UK would now be accepting 20,000 people fleeing conflict torn Syria by 2020.

Leader of Oxfordshire County Council Ian Hudspeth said at a full council meeting on Tuesday: "Like everyone else in Oxfordshire, I have been shocked and saddened by the images we have seen of refugees fleeing brutal regimes such as Syria where civil war is raging.

"The numbers on the march in Oxford at the weekend surprised even the organisers, and shows the strength of feeling and compassion of the people of Oxfordshire.

"The county council has been talking to partner agencies to see what we can do together."

The lifeless body of three-year-old Syrian refugee, Aylan Kurdi, washed up on the shore of a Turkish beach on Wednesday morning.

He and 12 others died after boats carrying refugees capsized while on its way to Europe.

Leader of the Oxfordshire County Council Liberal Democrat group, Neil Fawcett said at the council meeting: "Oxford, Oxfordshire and the UK has a fine tradition of welcoming and helping refugees.

"That tradition was reflected by the people of Oxfordshire over the last few weeks."

Oxon council appoint new temporary executives

FOLLOWING the resignation of Oxfordshire County Council's (OCC) chief executive new leadership was announced on Tuesday.

The roles of the chief executive, Joanna Simons, will now be split between other council officers after the position was scrapped to cut costs.

Current chief legal officer Peter Clark will now become head of paid service and the deputy head of law and culture, Nick Graham, will become monitoring officer.

Leader of Oxfordshire County Council Ian Hudspeth said: "This is about a decision and a process we've got to take. There will be a management review."

The council is legally obligated to have a head of paid service and monitoring officer under the Local Government Act Housing Act 1983.

OCC decided on the arrangement at a full council meeting at County Hall in New Road, which was also Ms Simon's last full council meeting.

Ms Simons is due to step down from her £186,000-a-year taxpayer-funded position at the end of this month, and will also receive a one-off £259,000 payment.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Police launch investigation into hidden hotel camera

POLICE have launched an investigation after a 23-year-old woman reported that she had discovered a hidden camera device placed behind a shower vent in the Wheatley Travelodge in London Road.

According to reports a student from Edinburgh was naked in the cubicle in the hotel on August 28 when she discovered the device.

She reported the camera to the hotel and immediately rang the police.

A Travelodge spokesperson, said: "We can confirm that on Friday, August 28, a customer at our Oxford Wheatley hotel made us aware of the presence of what appeared to be a camera in their room.

"While the camera appeared to be inoperative, we have reported this matter to the police and we are now supporting them fully with their ongoing investigations."

Thames Valley Police spokesperson, Anne Tugwell, said: "A camera has been recovered for examination.

"We are working closely with Travelodge to secure as much evidence as we can and an investigation is ongoing."

Boy may have drowned after becoming tangled

A FRIEND described seeing Aown Dogar disappear in the River Thames, as an inquest heard the schoolboy may have drowned after becoming tangled in plants.

Cheney School pupil Aown, 13, of Fox Crescent in Oxford, drowned in the River Thames while playing with friends under Donnington Bridge on June 25 - an inquest into his death heard last Thursday.

Assistant coroner Alison Thompson said she believes it's possible that Aown became tangled in foliage but that there was no way to be sure.

A statement from Aown's friend Riyadh Dewan said: "I tried to grab him as he floated past but I missed his hand by a few inches.

"The last time I saw Aown he was 20 metres from the bridge when his head went under the water. I didn't see Aown again."

Speaking at the inquest into the death at the coroner's court in New Road, Miss Thompson said: "I know the family aren't here but I would like to pass on my deepest sympathies to them.

"It must have been a terrible shock to them and to members of the community as well.

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"I am satisfied from all the evidence I have heard that heroic attempts were made to resuscitate him."

Aown was visiting his friend Riyadh Dewan, 12, in Fox Crescent whose house backs on to the river with his brother Naofil and his sister Noor.

While playing in the river Aown came into difficulty and was seen waving his arms in the air.

In his statement - read out at the inquest - Riyadh added: "I got into the water and Aown put his foot in the river and said it was cold. I told him not to be scared."

Riyadh said he noticed Aown waving his arms but thought he was joking, when he realized Aown was drifting with the current.

Aown's sister Noor - who had been filming the boys playing from the riverbank - began screaming and Riyadh attempted to catch Aown as he floated by.

The incident happened just after 7pm and police arrived on the scene at 7.16pm followed by the fire service shortly after.

• 13-year-old Aown Dogar died while playing in the Thames

Fire fighters recovered Aown from the river and he was taken to John Radcliffe Hospital by ambulance but was confirmed dead at 9.05pm.

Miss Thompson ruled Aown's death was accidental.

She said: "We know that he was not a strong swimmer."

"What they were doing was nothing new. It just seems he'd gone further down to the bridge this time."

Wantage school's £5m science block approved

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

• An artists impression of the new science block.

WANTAGE'S King Alfred's Academy has had its new £5million two-storey science block approved by Vale of White Horse District Council.

The science block is part of the academy's plan to consolidate from three sites to two and could be funded by selling off one of its sites.

Vale of White Horse District Council planning committee approved the application on September 2.

The executive head of the Vale Academy Trust, that runs the school, Simon Spiers, said: "I'm obviously over the moon. Absolutely delighted. It was an important hurdle we needed to cross.

"I was at the meeting and spoke in favour of the application."

The new building is set to consist of 14 laboratories and two food technology classrooms and will have up to 100 square metres of solar panels on the roof.

Construction of the building has been approved for the school's centre site in Portway and could be funded by the selling off of its East Site in Springfield Road.

The former building of Wantage Church of England Primary School will be demolished to make way for the new block.

Planning committee member and Vale councillor for Wantage and Grove Jenny Hanaby said: "Of course we want to support the school.

"I think the planning committee were very conscious of the nearness of the houses. But the proposal was changed from three-storey to two-storey and the building was moved away from the houses."

King Alfred's Academy is currently searching for funding for the new building, and if it is secured the building will be completed in one stage rather than two.

Mr Spiers added: "We're working with a number of agencies about the funding."

Mr Spiers also said any money made from the sale of the East Site would go towards the refurbishment of the school's other two sites and other work, including the science block.

Work on the new block is due to begin in 2016 however it is unclear how long it could take.

CCTV image released after shoplifting

A CCTV image has been released of a man police would like to speak to in connection with a series of shoplifting offences in Wallingford.

On July 29, at around 4pm in Lloyds Pharmacy in Wallingford's Market Place, mobile phones were taken when a man was seen placing them in a plastic bag and leaving the store.

The second incident occurred on August 20, at around 1.10pm in Boots in the Market Place, Wallingford where six blood pressure containers, worth £600 in total, were taken.

On August 24, between 2.05pm and 2.45pm, a man was seen putting toothbrushes, hair straighteners, deodorant and other electrical toiletries worth approximately between £700-800 into plastic bag.

Finally on August 22, at around 2.55pm in Lloyds Pharmacy in the Market Place, a foot scrubber worth £60 was taken in an incident.

Teams paddle like fury to aid charity

• (Top) Team Footsteps took the crown in the final race and (bottom) 23 teams took part in this year's event

INTREPID paddlers took to the water in dragon boats at Abingdon on Sunday to raise money for charity.

The event saw 23 teams compete head to head for the 16th Dragon Boat Day held on the River Thames.

With a drummer hammering out the beat on each boat, the 16-strong crews paddled like fury to propel their 40-ft craft over the 250-metre course.

Murray Scott, of organisers Rotary Club of Abingdon Vesper, said: "It gives the Abingdon people something to do on a nice sunny day. I think the atmosphere has been brilliant.

"It's all down to team building. The teams that do this enjoy it and come back year after year."

Dragon boat racing first started as an ancient Chinese tradition over 2,000 years ago.

In this year's event, Team Footsteps, representing the Dorchester-based Footsteps Foundation, proved victorious, with Wittenham Warriors in second place and the Penanches Dragons taking third.

The funds raised by the fun will go to benefit a number of charities including Oxford hospice Helen and Douglas House and Cancer Research UK.

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The event was sponsored by medical testers Alere Toxicology, based at Milton Park, who also entered a team.

Team member Sam Cobley, said: "We're the Alere Einsteins.

"We didn't do so well last year, we came 14th out of 16. The first race [this year] we beat our best time from last year.

"The atmosphere is really good. It's a real good family day, the sun is shining, there's beer flowing, there's a barbecue going on and everyone's having a really good time."

The free event began at 10am with medals being handed out following the finals at 4pm.

Heading of marketing for Alere, Lindsay Lennen, said: "We are the main sponsors of the event, which we have been for the last three years.

"I think it's a really important event to be involved in given we're a local company and we want to be involved in the community here."

Wantage iron man raises £2,600

A WANTAGE charity champion recently tested his steel and raised over £2,600 for charity.

Phil Cox undertook the 13-hour iron man challenge on August 28 in and around the town.

The challenge consisted of a 2.4-mile swim, a 112-mile bike ride and a 26.2-mile row and Mr Cox has so far raised £2,620.

Mr Cox, 43, who works for Oxfordshire County Council in social services said: "If you've donated thanks so much for supporting me.

"There were a couple of people that turned out to watch me start and there were eight of us who did the full ride with other people joining in along the way." The charity challenge was undertaken in support of Wantage-based charity The 14-Club, which provides a social venue for people with learning difficulties.

A traditional iron man consists of a 26.2 mile run, however Mr Cox opted for a row due to a knee injury.

The swim took place at Wantage Leisure Centre, the bike ride was laps of Wantage and the row was on a rowing machine at TFD Gym in Grove.

£1.2m fine for Hugo Boss after boy's death

• Austen Harrison (photo from INS news agency)

HUGO Boss UK was fined £1.2million on Friday for health and safety breaches that caused the death of a four-year-old boy at its Bicester Village store in June 2013.

Judge Peter Ross sentenced the company at Oxford Crown Court, calling the health and safety failings 'systematic'.

Austen Harrison, of Crawley in Sussex, died after an 18-stone mirror, which should have been fixed to the wall, fell on him.

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Austen's mum and dad, Irina and Simon Harrison, were both in court during the sentencing.

Judge Ross said: "Nothing that anyone in this case can do or say will heal the terrible and lifelong agony caused by their son's death and its impact.

"How far short of the acceptable standard did the defendant fall? A very, very long way.

"Was there systematic failure? In my view it was."

The designer clothing company was fined for one count of an employer failing to insure the safety of a person other than an employee and one count of contravening health and safety regulations.

Judge Ross fined the company £1.1m and £100,000 for the counts respectively, as well as ordering them to pay costs of almost £47,000.

No compensation order was made because a payment to Austen's family had already been settled.

Prosecutor Barry Berlin yesterday said at the court: "The mirror had not been fixed to the wall but had negligently been left free standing without any fixings.

"While Simon Harrison was trying on the suit, Austen was moving the wings of the mirror."

Austen was left with irreparable brain damage and his life support machine was turned off at Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital four days later.

Hugo Boss UK's representative in court Jonathan Laidlaw QC said the company had accepted its health and safety failings.

He said: "The consequence of this failing is as awful as one could reasonably imagine.

"Since the day of the accident Hugo Boss has done all it can, first to acknowledge those failings, to express genuine, heartfelt remorse and also demonstrate a determination to put things right and ensure there cannot be a repeat of what went wrong."

Representatives of the company admitted the offences at Banbury Magistrates' Court on June 2.

Bin lorry fire

WEST OXON: A bin lorry caught fire when a laptop exploded after being dumped in a household rubbish bin.

The lorry's crew heard an explosion and saw flames in the vehicle in Little Tew last Wednesday.

The crew managed to extinguish and stopped it from spreading beyond the back of the truck.

The fire brigade later used thermal imaging to determine that the fire had been caused by a laptop containing lithium batteries being crushed by the lorry's compactor.

Funeral theft

WANTAGE: A man and a boy have been charged on suspicion of burglary from a funeral parlour in Wantage in which a handheld drill, computer monitor and charity box were stolen on August 26.

A 19-year-old and a 17-year-old were both charged on August 28, with one count of burglary other than a dwelling – theft.

The charges are in relation to a burglary in a funeral parlour in Church Street, at around 10pm, which was broken into through a rear window.

A 16-year-old boy from Didcot was also arrested on suspicion of theft but was released without charge.

Rebel Without a Clue, the Jester's Tale

'Rebel Without a Clue, the Jester's Tale' by Roger Crawford, tells the story of how Roger became embroiled in the Family Court system in Oxford in a battle to see his only child, and lost, leading him to protest on various roofs and stand for election in 2010 with his trademark Court Jester outfit.

An entertaining journey through his life, with many laugh-out-loud moments which contrast with the pathos of losing all contact with his daughter and his advice for others who may be in a similar position.

Available now from Amazon for £8.99 and in all good bookshops, it is published by New Generation Publishing.

RAF bids farewell to retiring padre

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

RAF Benson's 92-year-old chaplain Padre Stan Jones retired last week after serving in and alongside the Royal Air Force since 1960.

Mr Jones, of Marlow in Buckinghamshire, volunteered for the Royal Navy as an 18-year-old, and in 1960 was appointed officiating chaplain to RAF Middleton St George in County Durham. He also served at RAF Catterick, North Yorkshire, before moving to RAF Boulmer in Northumberland and then taking up residence in Marlow and his final post at RAF Benson in 1994.

He has been 'forced' into retirement by his family who stopped him from driving earlier this year. However, the chaplain told the Guardian: "RAF Benson gave me nothing but friendship, camaraderie and happy memories and I enjoyed my time there immensely.

"I will miss the station officers, the crew and meeting with all the other padres from my time there."

The padre returned to the station for a last service, when he was presented with a painting of staff at RAF Benson from past and present times.

Alongside his pastoral activities, Mr Jones got involved in other activities such as donning a Santa suit to light the station's Christmas tree.

He is one of the few to be a member of the 'Ten Ton Club' after he flew at over 1,000mph in an English Electric Lighting from the Cold War era.

Simon Paterson, Station Commander, said: "Stan has offered friendship, support and guidance to many thousands of service personnel and their families and he will be greatly missed by all."

He plans to spend his time with his wife Muriel, catching up on books he has never read, going on long walks and chatting with old friends.

Builder given suspended jail term for work at OAP's home

A KIDLINGTON builder was given a 16-month prison sentence suspended for two years and ordered to do 220 hours of unpaid work after he was found guilty of carrying out substandard work for an inflated price on a pensioner's home.

Lee Sharkey, trading at 1st Choice Roofing Oxford, Hampton Poyle, pleaded guilty at Oxford Crown Court last Tuesday to charges of overinflating the price and poor maintenance work at the Southdale Road home in Sunnymead, Oxford.

Sharkey was ordered to wear a tag and observe a curfew for two months and to pay £6,000 costs following the prosecution by Oxfordshire County Council.

He also pleaded guilty to disguising criminal property, transferring criminal property and converting criminal property under the Proceeds of Crime act.

The victim was charged £46,800 for the work which included cleaning the roof, replacing bricks and re-bedding hip tiles.

Trading standards were alerted when the victim tried to transfer a large amount of cash.

Officer Martin Woodley said: "Without the assistance and quick-thinking of the victim's bank, we would not have been aware of this case."

WIN tickets to the London Homebuilding & Renovating Show

COINCIDING with the latest report that the South East of the UK has seen the largest rise in self-builders in 2015 with the numbers increasing YoY by 16 per cent[1], the up-and-coming London Homebuilding & Renovating Show, sponsored by Anglian Home Improvements, is set to attract thousands more visitors at its new spacious and contemporary venue, ExCel, London from 25-27 September. The event this year will celebrate the 25th anniversary of Homebuilding & Renovating magazine, the show's media partner and Britain's best-selling self-build publication, by taking its content off the pages and bringing it to life at the event, supported by new experts, exhibitors, seminars and masterclasses.

To commemorate a quarter of a century of publishing for self-builders at the impressive ExCel exhibition centre, the event will showcase how the property market, architectural and design trends, which have shaped the social aspects of the UK families, have evolved over this time. In addition, throughout the three-day event, people who are still unsure how to undertake a project efficiently from inception to fruition will have access to expert guidance and tailored advice at 15-minute consultations, in-depth seminars and masterclasses hosted by the UK's leading property experts and companies. The show's new location, ExCel London, will see more exhibitors than ever before, with over 350 companies displaying the latest products and services in the market place.

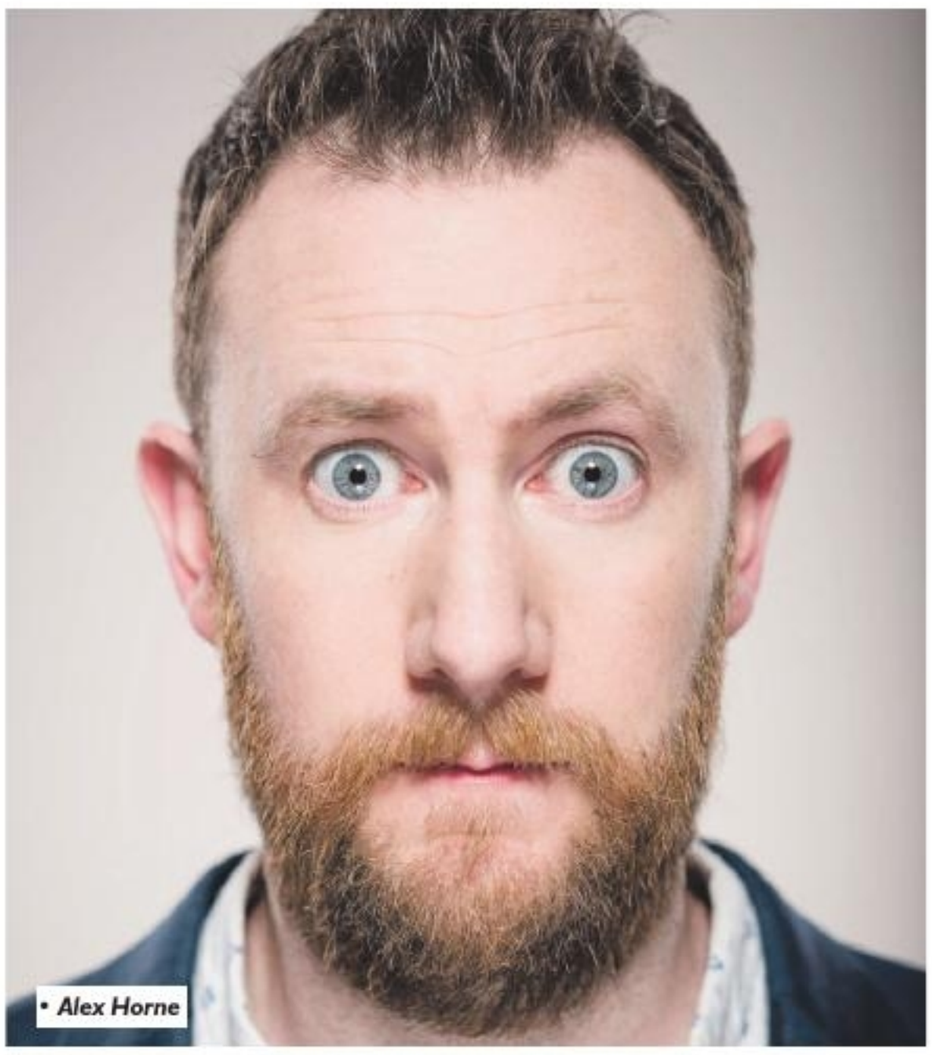
Horne humour hits town



• Alex Horne

MUSICAL comedian Alex Horne will be bringing his trusty Horne Section band to Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot on Thursday, September 24, as part of his 'Monsieur Butterfly' tour.

The 37-year old, who has made a number of television appearances with his group, is known for creating songs with his five-piece jazz band that have an element of randomness for comedic effect, with some of them having no real meaning behind them.

But despite the unique mix of comedy and music within their material, Alex revealed that it has not always been plain sailing.

"I don't think anyone took us seriously enough to offer advice to us, but we were generally encouraged by people from the start," he said.

"Live music has an effect on audiences that comedy rarely can, so I think people have embraced the idea of putting properly talented musicians at the forefront of a comedy show.

"And if I had to describe myself as a musician or comedian, it will absolutely be the latter.

"At the start I was unmusical while the band were unfunny. Unfortunately they're now occasionally hilarious while I remain tone deaf."

Alex's comedy career began 15 years ago when he made his Edinburgh

By James Richings

Fringe debut with his show, 'How to Avoid Huge Ships', which received positive reviews from critics.

He has since returned to the festival a number of times and in 2004 he won a Chortle Award for 'Best Breakthrough Act', which then opened the door to a wide range of endeavours.

In 2007, he and fellow comedian Owen Powell went on a quest to find a person from every nationality living in London from the 192 UN countries, eventually managing to track down 189 of them.

Book deals, slots on prime television shows, and the chance to have his own show on Radio 4 with the Horne Section, which sees him and his five-piece jazz band combine comedy, improvisation, storytelling and music, have put the comic in dreamland.

"It's genuinely fun," he said. "Touring involves a lot of driving, lifting, eating bad food and saying goodbye to your family.

"The hours spent on stage in front of a good audience are what make it worthwhile. That and the money.

"And I am very excited to be back in Didcot."

Suitable for over-12s, the show starts at 8pm and tickets cost £16.

Mash to mix it up for gig at The Bell

A MIX of well-known songs from the 1950s to the current day will feature when covers group Mash performs at The Bell pub in Market Place, Wantage, this Sunday, September 13.

The four-piece, fronted by lead singer and keyboard player Stuart Pass, are no strangers to the venue, having performed there many times before.

Customers can expect tracks from the likes of Duran Duran, The Monkees, Bruno Mars, The Jam, Bob Marley, The Killers and even Barry Manilow.

Stuart told the Guardian: "We play pub gigs simply for the enjoyment of entertaining and so getting a positive reaction from the audience is really important."

The free gig starts at 5pm and lasts for three hours.

Nina set for a city debut

A COMEDY show with a difference will be setting audience members chuckling on Saturday when award-winning ventriloquist and comedienne Nina Conti takes to the stage of the Oxford Playhouse.

By James Richings

The 41-year old entertainer, known for her use of audience interaction and puppetry, has performed at some of biggest comedy venues, such as Live at the Apollo at the Hammersmith theatre.

But it's her current 'In Your Face' tour that she is relishing currently as she gears up for her first visit to the city's Beaumont Street theatre.

Nina's rise to fame during the 2000s has seen her become one of the most popular and successful ventriloquist acts of recent years.

She told the Guardian: "I got into it around 12 years ago after having been an actress at the RSC and it was initially my pendulum swinging against what I perceived to be a po-faced theatre establishment."

She added: "I thought ventriloquism would amuse me for the summer of 2003, not build the house I live in and support the family I now have thanks to a life in comedy."

In her show, Nina uses two puppets, a monkey called Monk who constantly insults her, and elderly Scotswoman Granny, who talks about her dead husband Frank.

But it's the use of half a facemask on unsuspecting audience members manipulated via a handpiece held by Nina that she is now best known for as it leads her 'victims' into awkward situations.

Nina said: "And everyone can expect the unexpected because each show is spontaneously concocted according to who I meet in the first few minutes from the audience.

"It's bonkers, wonky and not the most cerebral show of my repertoire, but without doubt it has produced the biggest belly laughs."

Tickets cost from £17.50 to £19.50 with the show starting 7.30pm. It is suitable for over-16s.

New group to play Witney pub

NEW band Russ Payne and the Unison Bends will be getting toes tapping at the New Inn pub in Witney this Saturday, September 12.

By James Richings

Created by local musician Russ, a former member of The Shark Dentists group, the band consists of himself as lead vocalist and guitarist, Bill Keller on bass and Nigel Summerly on drums and blues harp.

As well as performing original tracks off Russ' debut album 'In Love with Trouble' which was released two years ago, the group will also be covering some of the most recognisable rock and blues tracks of all time.

"We cover all the normal bases of Hendrix and Cream but also play original tracks from our album, 'In Love with Trouble', along with tracks from our new album," Russ told the Guardian.

"We are a classic trio although sometimes we add sax and keys with a fourth member (Yosi Marshall).

"In fact, last time we played the New Inn it was as a four-piece but this time it's just the three of us."

The band members have a hectic autumn schedule ahead of them which will see them perform in across Oxfordshire, including gigs in pubs and bars in Abingdon, Steventon and Witney, as well as in London.

However, despite performing at venues in Oxfordshire and further afield, the three friends have to balance their day jobs with their musical endeavours, with Russ working as a guitar teacher in schools and owning a guitar tuition business called Go Guitar, bassist Bill as a lecturer and Nigel in journalism.

But having to turn up for work during the week does not stop them from entertaining hundreds of people across the country, who appreciates their live music.

"As a guitar teacher, I would say it's vital for youngsters to experience live music," Russ said.

"You cannot replace the visceral thrill of a live drum kit and guitar directly into an amp and at a venue like the New Inn, you can get really close and see how the whole band thing works.

"You can't get that if you go to see a stadium act.

"Also, so much happens on screens these days that it's so important for youngsters to actually feel the kick of the bass drum and experience musicians actually at work."

The free gig at the New Inn starts at 9.30pm and lasts until midnight.

Car company's state-of-the-art Full Link system puts range of phone apps safely at the driver's fingertips

Seat closes gap in connectivity

SEAT is undertaking an ambitious plan to prioritise in-car connectivity across all its models by linking the gap between the smartphone and infotainment system, so that the driver is always connected.

Several new models such as the Alhambra, Leon MY16 and Toledo MY16 will be available with Full Link, which is Seat's state-of-the-art, three-in-one connectivity solution.

With Apple Car Play for the iPhone user and Android Auto or Mirror-Link for Android devices, the solution is a first in the global car market and not only removes fears about current and future compatibility, but also allows users to access many of their phone functions and apps while on the move.

The new Ibiza, launched at the Barcelona Motor Show in May, is the first model to benefit from the advanced technology, which sees Seat take a giant leap forward in the race to eradicate compromise from connectivity.

With Full Link, designed in-house by Seat engineers, the full roster of smartphones running the latest iOS and Android software will connect without hassle.

The software puts the phone's features at the driver's fingertips.

Essential functions such as satellite navigation from certified apps and Google Maps can now be used safely via the car's touchscreen.

Apps,which have been classified as safe are being added regularly, and they include music service Spotify.

Temptation to use a handheld device is eradicated, as drivers will benefit from the system's read-out function, which delivers messages such as emails, tweets, Facebook posts, news and social media streams audibly, ensuring productivity during long journeys without compromising safety.

Drivers can also use its simple 'voice to reply' function as well as 'gesture control' which allows commuters to perform actions such as messaging or phone calls with a simple finger swipe across the car's infotainment screen, without taking eyes off the road.

Seat's head of fleet and business sales, Peter McDonald, said: "Seat is striving and achieving excellence in several areas that our customers consider to be vital."Full Link is a demonstration in how to seamlessly integrate, and take full advantage of, smartphone features, whether you're tech savvy or not.

"Any driver will undoubtedly benefit in terms of safety and minimising time lost, not to mention improved vehicle maintenance and driver behaviour."

DID SOMEONE SAY REVERSING CAMERA?

CITROËN

CITROËN C1

Some cars have that little extra something. In the case of Citroën C1, it's a reversing camera.[1] Brilliant for getting in and out of tight spots in town. Add to this, superb agility and super-efficient engines that give you up to 74.3 mpg;[Δ] a 7" touchscreen[2] control centre and unique bi-tone colour palette, it's no wonder the Citroën C1 is as irresistible as it is.

South Oxfordshire District Council

Notice of publication of proposed Watlington Neighbourhood Plan Town and Country Planning(General) Neighbourhood Planning Regulations amended 2015 and Localism Act 2011

Name of proposed Neighbourhood Area
Watlington

Subject matters
Watlington Parish Council (as a relevant body) has submitted proposals to re-designate the Watlington Neighbourhood Plan Area boundary. The proposed area follows the amended parish boundary of Watlington (as of April 2015). You can view the details of the area proposed and confirmation of this statement by visiting: www.southoxon.gov.uk/neighbourhoodplans and clicking on the Watlington link.

The neighbourhood plan is a way for the town or parish council to help shape how their community develops over the coming years. This is not a formal consultation on the neighbourhood plan, merely the identification of the potential area where the plan is to cover.

View the consultation documents
Copies of the neighbourhood plan application are available to view at the district council offices (135 Eastern Avenue, Milton Park, Milton, OX14 4SB) Monday – Thursday 9.00 am – 5.00 pm and Friday 9.00 am – 4.30 pm, Watlington Parish Council offices (1 Old School Place, Gorwell, Watlington, OX49 5QH) and online using the link above.

How to respond
We are opening a four week publication period on the application. This starts from Thursday 10 September 2015 – 8 October 2015. This is an opportunity to comment on the proposed area.

You can comment using our online consultation system, by visiting consult.southandvale.gov.uk/south. If you have not already done so, you will need to register to use our system.

Alternatively you can send comments through to planning.policy@southoxon.gov.uk or via post to Planning Policy, South Oxfordshire district council, 135 Eastern Avenue, Milton Park, Milton, OX14 4SB.
The council will use the comments to decide whether the area submitted for the plan is suitable or not. Please be aware that all comments received will be made available to the public to view.

Is Kemar Roofe the man to lead United?

ANALYSIS: Can Kemar Roofe inspire Oxford United to promotion this season?

One thing that's sure is Oxford have got a real player on their hands in the 22-year-old attacking midfielder.

The Walsall-born player came through West Bromwich Albion's prestigious academy, signing his first professional contract with the club in January 2012.

His early career saw him shipped off to Northampton Town and Cheltenham Town where he never truly was given a chance to make an impact.

He joined Colchester United last season but only made two appearances before Michael Appleton picked him up in a three-month loan deal in February this year.

From the off, United fans knew they had a player of serious calibre who hadn't been seen in Oxford since the days of Joey Beauchamp in the 90s.

His control on the ball and the elegance with which he glides past players and links with fan favourite Danny Hylton has seen United's attack re-energized in this season's promising start.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Roofe has also displayed a penchant for the spectacular with some pile-drivers from outside the box, seen last season in the 1-0 away win at Newport County, the 40-yard stunner against Brentford in the Carling Cup last month and his stunning curler against Bristol Rovers last week.

It was a no-brainer for Appleton to bring him in and ever since his move in June, United fans have not stopped singing their new hero's name.

A fan remarked how Roofe is the player that can 'conjure something from nothing', can bring the pace up and gift United that late spark when it seems like the game's fading out.

While these may be exciting days for Oxford, as alongside Roofe, the emergence of 20-year-old winger Callum O'Dowda has certainly got fans hearts racing, there must be a hint of caution, as the question mark will remain on whether Appleton can keep hold of his star player.

With the loan window now open and the January transfer window a looming spectre in the distance, there ever remains the possibility that a higher team could steal him away.

However one thing's for certain, if Roofe can stay fit and can maintain his wonder form, then United fan's dreams in their heads may turn to reality on the pitch come next summer.

Plato keeps title fight alive at Rockingham

A THRILLING final third race saw Jason Plato deny Tom Ingram a maiden victory in the British Touring Car Championship victory at Rockingham last weekend.

The win was the Oxford racer's 93rd win overall that involved a race-long battle with Ingram and title rival Colin Turkington.

Plato and Ingram were neck-and-neck throughout the final race with Plato only taking hold of the race with three laps to go whilst Ingram claimed his first BTCC podium in second place.

The championship leader was involved in an accident in the opening lap of the weekend's first race resulting in a 27th place finish before grabbing himself a seventh place finish in the second race.

Plato, who had led the championship before the weekend, now lies in second on 280 points, just six off his career rival Gordon Shedden in first place with just two race weekends left to go.

The 47-year-old tweeted after the weekend's racing: "What a day of ups and downs, can't wait til Silverstone, the fightback has begun."

Saints star for Team GB trials

OXFORD Saints star running back James Walter has been invited to attend the GB National Team Trials in Sheffield following a stunning season.

Walter will be vying with many other hopefuls to earn his spot on the final roster after scoring 14 touchdowns and gaining 1103 yards from 148 carries in just eight games.

His record of passes on the field is also exemplary for his position, with Walter hauling 20 passes for an additional 186 yards and three touchdowns as he led the team in overall carries, receptions, yards gained and touchdown over the whole season.

James joined the saints when he came to study at Oxford Brooks University in 2012 and has proved to be a valuable addition to the team.

Saints linebacker Graeme Taylor said of Walter: "I've played this sport for 10 years with players from all over America and Europe, and I can honestly say that James is one of the best players I've ever had the fortune of playing alongside.

"To gain over 1,000 rushing yards in an 8-game season is unbelievable and I know he will do himself and the Oxford Saints proud."

The trials will take place on the weekends of September 19-20 and October 17-18 and if selected, Walter will be able to compete for Team GB in matches across Europe.

Double DNF despair as Lotus' race ends early

LOTUS F1's hopes of a repeat performance of their strong showing in Belgium last month were quickly ended as both drivers were involved in collisions on the first lap of the Italian Grand Prix on Sunday.

Romain Grosjean and Pastor Maldonado had started eighth and 10th respectively, and were in the middle of the pack as they went into the first chicane.

But a domino effect of collisions was triggered by Felipe Nasr's Sauber hitting Grosjean, who then knocked Nico Hulkenberg's Force India into the side of Maldonado.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

While Nasr and Hulkenberg were both able to continue, the two Lotus cars suffered damage and had to retire.

"It's been a tough weekend and this is racing sometimes," said Maldonado.

"I had contact in turn one where the Force India came into the side of me and took out my front right suspension, and that was the end of my race.

"We were looking for a strong finish and had potential for that, but we keep pushing as there are still seven grands prix to go so time to recover and keep fighting."

Grosjean did manage to complete a lap, but pulled off the track at the start of lap two after his car was too badly damaged to carry on.

It comes after he earned his best result in almost two years at the previous race in Belgium on August 23 where he came home third.

He said: "I made a strong start but got hit by a car from behind in turn one which broke my rear suspension, so that was it for us.

"It was a too optimistic move from Nasr who hit me.

"It's been a tough weekend but everyone has made the most of the opportunities we have and the spirit of the team and the support from the F1 world has been amazing."

Grosjean is ninth in the drivers' championship standings with 38 points, while Maldonado is 14th with 12 points.

The next race takes place in Singapore on September 20, where Lotus will hope to know more about Renault's speculated takeover of the financially-troubled Enstone-based team.

Blues back to winning ways over Stags

OXFORD RL completed a hat-trick of wins over the Hemel Stags this season as the Blues went tenth in the table in a 38-16 win.

The Blues took the lead when Hemel had to defend against immense pressure and Kyle Danns went over.

They had their second try of the day shortly afterwards with Nathan Kitson kicking true with one of the two occasions.

Josh Nathaniel was then able to add a third try to the Oxford scoreline with Kitson back on target for the conversion.

Oxford simply dominated the game as it wore on but Hemel did break away with a try after Liam O'Callaghan touched down for the home side.

Luke Evans added another for Oxford shortly before the break although Hemel came storming out of the blocks in the second half with Ashley Fyson going over and then Thibault Cousinie went under the sticks.

This woke Oxford up who rounded off the scoring through tries from Andy Speake, Louis Richards and then another try from Craig Cook with Kitson converting two out of the three attempts.

Freds undone by tricky Taunton test

WANTAGE Town fell to three successive defeats as they were outplayed by promotion chasers Taunton Town at Alfredian Park on Saturday.

The Freds were dealt an early blow with two minutes on the clock after Jamie Short scored for the visitors.

The Peacocks then doubled their advantage shortly after Josh Klein-Davies collected a long ball, skipped round the defence, before firing past Wantage keeper Edward Cavanagh.

The second half proved to be very competitive, with the sides getting rough with each other and Wantage won themselves a penalty on the hour mark after Nick Thorne was brought down in the box.

Ben Whitehead stepped up to take the penalty and he fired the ball into the bottom right hand corner with the keeper going completely the wrong way and the game teetered out for a Wantage defeat.

Comeback draw for Oxon

DARTS: Oxfordshire won their last six matches to avoid an opening defeat in their British Inter Counties Championship Division 1 opener against County Durham.

Oxfordshire's wins came from Lee Russell, Glenn West, Adam Bowman, Geordie Grant and Andy Thomas as they secured an 18-18 draw.

They had looked certain to be heading for a defeat after falling 18-12 behind early on.

A speedy departure

ICE HOCKEY: Oxford City Stars were left shocked last week after their new import signing Andrew Bates moved back to the USA two days after arriving in the UK last Friday.

Reports state that Bates' decision was due to him not being able to maximise his career potential in Oxford.

The club is already looking at a number of other possible import players to replace him.

New presidents

ROWING: Morgan Gerlk and Maddy Badcott have been announced as presidents for the 2015-16 BNY Mellon Boat Race season respectively for Oxford University Rowing Club's men's and women's teams.

Gerlak won the Isis-Goldie Reserve Boat Race this year and claimed an U23 World Championship Bronze medal in the USA coxless four in 2013.

Badcott is going into her final year of studying English at Wadham College and tasted victory in this year's Women's Boat Race.

City stay fourth in rugged goalless draw to Whitehawk

• Oxford City's Luke Coulson in action against Whitehawk FC (Picture by Michael Allen)

OXFORD City kept hold of their fourth-place position in the National League South after being held to a goalless draw at Marsh Lane by Whitehawk on Saturday.

Despite a high standard of football on the pitch, both goalkeepers pulled off some acrobatic saves to keep the score even.

City fashioned the first chance when Vinny Mukendi's shot was scrambled away by the Whitehawk defence before teammate Omari Sterling-James went close.

Luke Coulson played the quarterback role for City, sitting tight and delivering in ball after ball but his forwards could not find the back of the net.

City captain Alejandro-Adrian Santiago then had his nose broken from a loose elbow from a Whitehawk player just before the half-time whistle.

Sergio Torres began to pull the strings for Whitehawk just after the break but Oxford's Laurie Walker was on hand to pull off save after save.

Coulson kept possession well for Oxford and on the 85th minute, City were handed a free-kick 24 yards out but Ander Del Alamo's effort was just wide of the goal.

The result ends a run of two consecutive defeats with City hoping to get their campaign back on a winning track at Concord Rangers on Saturday.

Grove make fighting start in season opener

GROVE bamboozled the Oxford Harlequins as they opened their South West One East campaign with a 39-12 bonus point win at Cane Lane on Saturday.

The South Oxfordshire side dominated the visitors with fly half Mike Martin kicking 12 points on his debut.

Two Martin penalties gave Grove a 6-0 lead after 16 minutes before the game became a bit of a stop-start affair.

Quins fly half Huw Diamond tried his best to punish the opposition but he was not able to make a dent in the Grove defence.

It took until the 38th minute for the visitors to get off the mark when Tom Tierney brilliantly ran in from his own 22-metre line.

Grove then made it 9-5 on the stroke of half-time with Martin slotting a penalty home.

The second half saw Grove score five tries with Tom Clipsham starting them off after he dived over in the corner, which was quickly followed up by Cash Chilvers finding a gap in the defence.

Axel Poulet gave the visitors hope as he touched down after latching on to a loose ball but Grove went on to finish Oxford off with Clipsham crossing for his second and then Simon Cramp touched down on 80 minutes.

Alman's boys deal out Ardley a 5-1 thrashing

A WIN AT LAST FOR ABINGDON

ABINGDON United finally got the win fans have been craving for, in a pummelling 5-1 victory over Bicester-based Ardley United that saw their manager depart the club on the final whistle.

A double from George Reid and goals from Adam Bowerman, Kieran Cochrane and a debut goal from Jordon Jeacock secured Abingdon United's first three points of the season despite playing most of the game with 10 men.

Heading into the match, Abingdon were second bottom after six games with just a point, having shipped 20 goals, but they were up for it from the off as they faced a lacklustre Ardley side.

Steve Alman's team took the lead through a well-converted penalty from Reid, after Ardley's Jack Goode was ruled to have tripped Cochran over in the box.

Cochran then got his side's second of the evening, as he rose high to meet Reid's swooping cross to beat Goode from three yards.

Abingdon were then dealt a blow as Cochrane was sent off when the assistant referee spotted the attacker kicking out in retaliation after a hard challenge.

The sending off didn't deter

The U's and soon after it was three for Abingdon as Bowerman latched on to a loose ball and slid it calmly past Goode.

With five minutes to go in the first-half Ardley finally responded after a run from Josh Bowden led to a chance for Andy Prescott who fired into the corner.

However, Abingdon restored their three-goal lead before the whistle with Reid grabbing his second of the day as his winding run into the box opened up space for him to fire past Goode.

The away side's ten men defended impeccably as they warded off the Ardley attack in the second half.

And Alman's boys made it a win to remember with twenty minutes left when Jeacock scored after coming on as a substitute.

The forward broke down the left before firing his effort past Goode to make it five in a morale-boosting win for Abingdon.

Shortly after the game it was announced Ardley had parted ways with Kevin Brock, and that senior players will take temporary charge of their next game at Highmoor Ibis on Saturday.
